

ATTEND THE TOYMAKER'S DREAM THIS EVENING

WITNESS THE ACTS OF THE
LITTLE FOLK OF THE TONO-PAH SCHOOLS.

At last the anxiously awaited day is here. Tonight we will see "The Toy Maker's Dream." Everything is ready. The last rehearsal is over. The little actors and actresses are all on the qui vive waiting for the curtain to rise. They are confident, sure of pleasing you, and will swing through the evening with genuine delight.

If you don't laugh at the two tiny teddy bears and the cat then you never were a real kid. The older boys and girls will show you some very finished work with their songs, recitations, dances, drills and ballets. THE LAST NIGHT OF THE CURTIS COMPANY AT THE BUTLER.
"FROLICS OF 1909."

Horrors! Tonight will be the last night of the Allen Curtis Musical Comedy company at the Butler, for on the morrow they depart for Goldfield to play for three nights and then go to southern California. The company intended to play here the remainder of the week, but owing to different arrangements being made yesterday, the change was decided on.

No more will the theatergoers of this city have the pleasure of witnessing the evolutions of the chorus. Oh, you chorus! Never again will we be able to hear the jokes of the comedians. Good bye, comedians. We won't miss the comedians as much as we do the chorus, for other joke crackers will visit us in the future, but we never expect to meet such a bunch of charming damsels in this southern country as those who compose the personnel of the Curtis company.

The stunt tonight will be "Frolics of 1909," and is a scream. No it is worse than that. As a cure for the blues it has no equal and would have been produced here before only the management was afraid that those who witnessed it would laugh too hard and would be unable to attend the next night's show.

So be on hand tonight and give the company a rousing send off in appreciation of the many enjoyable evenings they have afforded us.

WANDELL WAS GOOD PATRON OF THE DANCE HALL

TESTIMONY SHOWED HE PAT-
RONIZED RHYOLITE RESORT
FREQUENTLY.

Considerable surprise was caused in the case of C. M. Wandell vs. the Sixty-Six club yesterday at the district court where the trial is being held, by the testimony of Frank Palmer.

Palmer was employed as a caller at the Rhyolite dance hall at the time Wandell claims he lost $10,000 in the Sixty-Six club by gambling, and who is seeking to recover by claiming he was a minor. He testified that Wandell was a frequent visitor at the place and spent a large sum of money, both over the bar and in dancing with the ladies of the house. He also stated Palmer numerous times with money to gamble. At the time court adjourned Palmer was undergoing a severe cross examination. The case is rapidly nearing the end and may go to the jury for consideration before the end of the week.

PRINCELY SUM FOR SERVICES OF ACCOUNTANTS

NYE COUNTY WILL PAY BOOK
EXPERTS AMOUNT AGGRE-
GATING $1600.

"On motion of Mr. Cuddy, seconded by Mr. Lindsay, it is unanimously ordered that H. E. Howell, expert accountant, be and is hereby authorized and directed to proceed with the expediting of all the records and accounts of Nye county, and in doing so the said H. E. Howell is allowed for his services the sum of $25 per diem, and in addition thereto he is also allowed the help of an assistant who is to receive the sum of $10 per diem for his services rendered, and

"It is further ordered that in addition to the above compensation, the said accountants are allowed their railroad fare to and from San Francisco and their expenses of living while in the employ of Nye county, and

"It is further ordered that the said accountants be employed for a period not to exceed thirty days."

The above is an extract from the minutes of the county commissioners at their last monthly session. At the present the "experts" are employed on the books of the county and at the rate they are progressing, they will take the time limit before completing the work.

The employing of Mr. Nowell and his assistant will cost Nye county the small sum of about $1600, but that is a mere bagatelle when the fact that our county treasury is fairly running over with funds, is taken into consideration. But then the good things come high.

There is a law on the statute books of this state which says that the county commissioners cannot expend a sum over $500 without first advertising for bids, but this legal phrase must have been overlooked when the contract was made with Mr. Nowell and his assistant.

The county commissioners evidently overlooked the fact that there are accountants right here in Tonopah, who are equal, if not superior to Mr. Nowell and his assistant, whose work has spoken for itself in the past and whose honesty and integrity are known—not that we are casting any insinuations on the California experts, but the small sum to be paid them will be contributed by tax payers of Nye county, and could have just as well been spent in this county.

The whole affair has a reeking, rotten appearance and it is very evident that the two gentlemen from California will receive their salaries from the pockets of the county commissioners, with the exception of the $500, or rather $499, for surely the honorable board will not order the payment of the bill in direct violation of the laws of the state of Nevada.

MISS GELBART WILL APPEAR IN RHYTHM IDYLS

WILL PROVIDE ENTERTAIN-MENT FOR LADIES OF GOLD-
FIELD AND CARSON.

Miss Hallie Gelbart, who is directing and producing "The Toy Maker's Dream" to be given tonight at Eagles' pavilion by the Tonopah school children will appear on Monday night next in Goldfield and Wednesday in Carson in her evening of "Rhythm Idyls."

This is the unique recital which Miss Gelbart introduced at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, last winter under the patronage of Mrs. Jacob Riis and Mrs. Charles Brodie Patterson. Miss Gelbart, who does the work of the entire program with the aid of an accompanist, has presented this evening before many of the most cultured audiences of the east and the comments of the press are, without exception, complimentary in the extreme.

The Salt Lake Herald of May 11 spoke most enthusiastically of Miss Gelbart's appearance there.

Of the many press notices we quote from New York Times:

"Miss Hallie F. Gelbart, a reciter, and Mrs. Harriet Crane Pitblado, pianist, thoroughly delighted the large audience. The character pictures carrying out in words the spirit of the dance rhythm as it is heard in march, waltz, minuet, bolero, etc., were most cleverly presented by Miss Gelbart—the musical background being splendidly played by Mrs. Pitblado. It is altogether unique and essentially a charming program, and with its variety cannot fail to please every one."

Miss Gelbart is a graduate of the Emerson college of oratory, Boston, and beside her experience in lyceum work, has been in the companies of Miss Maude Adams, Miss Viola Allen and Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

NOTICE TO VOLUNTEERS
